Ship in style with a premium logistics service that supports your brand.

Red carpet treatment

When fashion week opens, the whole industry stops to watch. Your designs need to be there on time, ready for final fitting with the stylists and models. Deliver quickly with our bespoke, round-the-clock logistics service - including out-of-hours collection and 24/7/365 customer care. Simply tell us when it needs to arrive, and we'll make it happen at any time of the day – or night.

Plan for success

A storm at an airport can risk months' worth of hard work. That's why our team of specialists have a contingency plan for every situation. Take advantage of our global solution to navigate efficiently through local regulatory requirements for fast and reliable deliveries. Benefit from flexible routings and never allow anything to stop your shipment from reaching its destination on time.

Security and control

The highest security standard is maintained throughout the journey by implementing comprehensive protocols to safeguard the shipment under all circumstances. These measures include real-time tracking for continuous visibility, tight custody chains to maintain control, and, when necessary, armed escorts for additional protection. You can track your shipment and receive up-to-the-second updates on the status of your goods via our exclusive, purpose-built technology.

Flexibility through planning

Our team constantly monitors airline alerts and global events that may impact your deadlines, executing contingency plans as needed to make sure that the shipments arrive at the destination safely and on time.
